Advance Praise for Swedes in Canada

“Swedes in Canada: Invisible Immigrants is an important contribution to the history of Swedish immigration to North America. It is the first major overview of Swedish-Canadian history, which is long overdue. It provides a comprehensive and readable discussion of many facets of the history of Swedes in Canada, and is based on detailed analyses of often elusive sources. Elinor Barr is to be congratulated for bringing both attention and visibility to this immigrant group in the larger Canadian mosaic.”

DAG BLANCK
Director, Swedish Institute for North American Studies, Uppsala University

Cover photograph: Carlson family portrait, Scandinavia, Manitoba, 1898. Parents Lovisa and Carl Victor are seated with Ida and Carl; standing left to right are Nannie, Olga, Berna, and Anna. Courtesy of Mrs Ida Pearson.